Redpath wins Business of the Year Award

The North Bay and District Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with The North Bay Nugget have selected J.S. Redpath Limited as the recipient of the region's "Business of the Year" for 2008.

Redpath was one of six top ranked employers in the region who were nominated by the Chamber's members for this year's award. Each nominated company was evaluated in such areas as employment growth, employee relations, capital investment in the region, technical/product development to name a few.

The North Bay Nugget will be presenting this award to Redpath at the North Bay and District Chamber of Commerce 114th Annual General Meeting and Gala on Friday, November 21st.

Congratulations to all J.S. Redpath Limited employees and staff for winning this prestigious award.
